CATALOGUE 2023

Christmas with Naxos Music Group

Christmas is one of the most richly celebrated seasons around the world. While its focus rests on just a few days of the year, the wealth of music that has been written to mark its spirit and story is astonishingly plentiful and varied.

Musicians continue to be inspired by the message of Christmas: in the following pages you will find examples of contemporary choral works by British composers John Tavener, James MacMillan and Sasha Johnson Manning alongside the established masterpieces of composers such as J.S. Bach, Handel and Berlioz.

The Christmas story has also been recorded in opera, ballet and instrumental music, in a range of expression that runs from piety to jollity.

Easy-listening compilations are well represented in the listings, including regional collections and the gamut of carols that are annual favourites, heard either in the splendour of Europe's historic cathedrals or in the local community. This newly updated catalogue features a wealth of Christmas titles from all the labels from the Naxos Music Group.

We hope our catalogue will serve you with music that is both comfortingly familiar and refreshingly novel. May you spend a very happy Christmas with Naxos.

NAXOS MUSICBOX

For a lifelong love of music!

Families with children aged from 4-14 can now immerse themselves in the world of classical music by opening up Naxos MusicBox, the latest inspirational website from the world's largest classical recording company. MusicBox has a wealth of fun and engaging activities for young people to explore on their own or with an adult, helping them to foster a lifelong appreciation of music.

'A very fine resource, which will definitely be engaging for children, its target audience, but for adults as well.'
